

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (23NMPH)

Extension of Applications

Due to popular demand of the Master of Public Health programme, the University of Namibia is pleased to extend the application period for this programme until the indicated period below.

This programme helps equip its graduates with the necessary knowledge, skills and competences related to analysis of health care systems and data.

Programme durations: Minimum three years (Full time or Part Time)

Mode of Programme delivery: Blended

Programme information: Detailed information can be found in our online prospectus by following this link:
<https://www.unam.edu.na/prospectuses/>

Programme Requirements:

- Honours degree in health field or equivalent; Average performance of 60% or better.
- Minimum three years working experience in health sector (provide proof i.e testimonial from your employer (s))
- NQA evaluation report for foreign obtained qualifications

How to Apply:

All applications are online and should be completed at:

<https://www.unam.edu.na/online-application>

Applications period: Open now until 22 November 2024

For any inquiries related to this programme, please contact:

Mr E. Nakale, Faculty Officer \ Email: enakale@unam.na

Dr APK Shilunga, Head of Department \ Email: ashilunga@unam.na